Dear teacher or counselor,

This student is applying to German International School Boston's Fast Track Program, a gateway that enables students with limited or no prior German skills to enter GISB between grades 3 – 6. Students accepted into this program are eager to tackle the challenge of an intensive language-learning experience, curious about the world and people around them, and able to demonstrate above-average academic potential and achievement.

We appreciate your willingness to help us in our admission process by completing the form below. All information is confidential and will not be released to anyone outside of GISB employees engaged in the Admission process. Please visit gisbos.org/admissions/FastTrack for more information, or contact Marion Goodwin, Director of Admission & Enrollment at marion.goodwin@gisbos.org
