School Counselor

German International School Boston is an independent, coeducational day school serving 280 plus students in preschool through grade 12. Learning at GISB is a multilingual, multicultural experience; graduates earn both a Massachusetts high school diploma and a German International Abitur. In multi-grade classrooms, dedicated teachers address each learner's unique needs. With its international focus, urban location, commitment to affordability, and highly-involved community, GISB is a special place to learn and grow. Our mission is to prepare students for success in a global world. GISB is an equal opportunity employer, providing generous benefits and a collegial, international work environment. For more information, please visit www.gisbos.org.

We are seeking a temporary, part-time (15-24 hours) School Counselor to support and educate elementary, middle, and high school students through a well-prepared counseling program to start on or close to April 8, 2019.

Responsibilities

Social and emotional learning (SEL) for Grades K-12:

- Develop and implement an all-encompassing counseling plan;
- Provide support services to individual students, small groups, and whole classrooms;
- Provide professional development to train teachers in social and emotional learning; and
- Be aware of cultural differences when working with students and parents.

Requirements:

- Master's degree in school counseling;
- 3- 5 years experience;
- Ability to work with a wide range of student personalities and backgrounds;
- Excellent communication skills and high emotional intelligence abilities;
- Basic knowledge of computers; and
- Knowledge of German (preferred).

You enjoy coordinating with your colleague(s), are well organized and use a number of different approaches and methods in your teaching. We are a small and dynamic school and need your readiness to fully engage in our school's bi-cultural daily life and culture, inside and outside your classroom.

We offer a dynamic team of students, teachers and parents, and a salary that is commensurable with experience and actual hours taught.

Please submit a cover letter and resume by E-mail to Lea Rossu, School Counselor at lea.rossu@gisbos.org.
